Good morning Brad,

At this stage, I'm suggesting we proceed with a dividend payment of $700,000. We can then consider a second distribution closer to the end of the financial year, once the franking credits are fully confirmed.

Additionally, with RWM delivering strong profits, I believe it's an appropriate time to revisit the idea of a bonus for me, consistent with what we've done in previous years.

Regards,
Asaf

Hi Asaf

We would like to see a dividend paid out of Raw Mobility.

1. please send me the bank statements from 1 Jan 2025 to date
2. please let us know how much dividend you propose allowing sufficient working capital

Thank you

BGG
